REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Gilsum :

I herewith submit my annual report as superintendent of schools.

ORGANIZATION

Miss Evelyn Patterson was elected to fill the vacancy in the upper grade position at the village school. Miss Patterson graduated from the three year curriculum of Keene Normal School in 1935 and attended summer school at the University of New Hampshire. Before coming to Gilsum she taught for three years in upper grade positions in Vermont.

All the teachers have indicated their interest in professional growth by attendance at summer school sessions and teachers' institutes.

Several changes have been made in the general testing program as a result of suggestions proposed by the teachers. The revised program should more fully meet our needs as a basis for remedial instruction designed to correct deficiencies in the fundamental processes.

The Union School District of Keene has issued notification of a graduated advancement in the high school tuition rate as follows: 1939-40, $80.00; 1940-41, $90.00; 1941-42, and thereafter $100.00. It should be generally understood by the citizens that the school board may not pay for high school tuition an amount in excess of the average cost of instruction unless a contract for this amount is authorized at the district meeting. It should also be understood that failure of the district to authorize a contract will mean that the parents of the pupils attending Keene High School will be compelled to pay the difference between the average cost of instruction and the tuition rate as established.

The organization and program of our schools have undergone many changes. We have come to realize more and more that the educational program must be a flexible living thing which grows, expands, or changes to meet the needs of the changes in our social and economic life. One of the most significant trends has been the shifting of emphasis from subject matter to child development. It is now generally believed that the value of content in all courses should be measured in terms of its value in the life of the growing child. As a result of a study of the real needs of life, much new material has been eliminated.

A reading program has developed which more nearly meets the needs of children according to their varying levels of ability. The newer teaching methods in reading recognize the importance of guiding the growth of children in accordance with their degree of readiness and background rather than emphasizing unified performance in the acquisition of specific knowledge. It is now possible for the teacher to ascertain which of her pupils are ready to read and which ones are not. The application of simple tests may lead the teacher to discover difficulties or defects which must be overcome before much progress in reading can be made. Books for the primary reading classes as now composed and illustrated appeal to the interest of the children and the simple thoughts expressed may be interpreted in terms of their own experience.

In arithmetic also there is a tendency to emphasize operations that have value in the experiences of real life. Consequently, many impractical problems and exercises have been replaced by extended practice in more useful and practical material.

The words used in the spelling lesson have been selected as a result of investigations which have been conducted to determine their proper grade placement. A correlation has been established between the words used in spelling and those included in the reading vocabulary.

The aim in history as taught in the lower grades is to build up background through the child's natural interest in people and simple social customs. It is now accepted practice in the upper grades to emphasize the cultural contributions of each civilization rather than the strictly chronological treatment of wars and dynasties.

The change in attitude regarding discipline indicates, I believe, one of the most wholesome trends in modern education. The movement has been in the direction of humanity and common sense and is an important indication of the greater respect for the personality of the child.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

Considerable damage to the roof and chimney of the older section of the village school was caused by the hurricane. Repairs have been made to the roof of the original building and a new chimney was relaid from the roof. The driveway on the school grounds was graveled and the two older furnaces were repaired and reset. Additional desks were installed in the intermediate room without cost to the district.

At the West School the plaster and woodwork on the side walls was painted. The labor involved in painting the woodwork was contributed. The seats were re-arranged and adjusted in height to the needs of the pupils. The cracks and holes in the brick exterior walls of the building were filled with mortar and painted.

STATISTICAL REPORT 1937-1938

Total registration	106
Average membership	96.80
Percentage of attendance	93.93
Cases of tardiness	101
Visits by superintendent	104
Number of pupils not absent or tardy	0
Visits by citizens and others	189
Half days schools were in session	357

The total registration was nine less than in previous years. There was a decided decrease in the number of cases of tardiness and a substantial improvement in the general attendance record.

The school year consists of a total of 180 days, including the days on which the teachers are present at conventions. Because of the large number of holidays which must be observed during the year, the school year extends over a thirty-eight week period. Days lost on account of storm have been made up on days agreeable to the School Board.

I wish to express my appreciation of the co-operation I have received from members of the School Board, teachers, parents, and pupils.

CHARLES D. DALZELL,
Superintendent of Schools
